

A WALKING MIRACLE

EXCLUSIVE by STEVEN MOORE

Mary finds her legs after 12-year hell

MARY Mullan is putting an advert in the paper - 'One wheelchair for sale - No longer needed following miracle.'

The 56-year-old Pintonna woman says she no longer needs the wheelchair which she has relied on for the past 12 years.

After a seizure 12 years ago, doctors were unable to help Mary and she has been confined to her chair ever since.

But not anymore. Now Mary says she can walk as far as 200 yards unaided and she has plans to do a lot more.

And she says she owes her new lease of life to the healing hands of Ulster faith healer Danny Gallagher.

The Maghura miracle man has been working his magic once again after healing the sick all over the world.

Since healing a crippled girl over 30 years ago the seventh son of a seventh son says he has been using his special powers to help all kinds of people.

"Danny Gallagher has changed my life - it really is a miracle," says Mary Mullan.

Seizure

"I had a seizure 12 years ago because of wear and tear to the discs in my back but doctor's said they couldn't operate because there was a strong risk they could paralyse me.

"So ever since then I have had to use a wheelchair everywhere I go whether it's just to get round the house or to go out to the shops."

But four weeks ago Mary's brother told her about Danny Gallagher and said how he was having a meeting in the Silver Birch Hotel in Omagh.

"My brother asked if I would give it a go and although I didn't believe that anything would happen I was willing to try anything," says Mary.

"When Danny saw me in the wheelchair for the first time he said to me straight away, 'you're coming out of that wheelchair,' and I told him 'that would be a miracle.'"

But after just three sessions with Danny, Mary was up and about without any help at all.

"He just touched all the areas of my body that were giving me problems - my back, neck, knees and chest.

"I could feel this incredible heat coming off his hands and by the second session I was able to get out of my wheelchair and walk towards Danny.

"After the third visit I didn't need my wheelchair at all anymore so the miracle had come true.

"I'm not a religious person but I can tell you this is the most incredible thing that has ever happened to me.

"People in the area can't believe it when they see me walking down the street and they all stop and ask what happened to my wheelchair.

"It's been hell being stuck in a wheelchair because people always talk down to you or talk over you as if you aren't there.

"I've been called every name under the sun - people can be very cruel - and I really feel sorry for anyone who is confined to a wheelchair.

"But the hardest thing of all was watching my sisters walking about and doing all the things I couldn't do but now hopefully I can.

"I can't thank Danny enough for what he has done for me but he'll always have a special place in my heart from now on."

Danny Gallagher says he can't explain what he does - he just does it.

"When I was just eight years old I had a really vivid dream communicating my powers over illness," says Danny.

"I'm a faith healer so I'm only doing what God wants me to do. It can get a bit demanding but this is what I was put on earth to do."
